(GROUP-II)
NOTIFICATION

Jaipur, April 29, 2010

No. F. 2 (14) Vidhi/2/2010.--In pursuance of Clause (3) of Article 348 of the Constitution of India, the Governor is pleased to authorize the publication in the Rajasthan Gazette of the following translation in the English language of the Rajasthan Paryatan Vyavasay (Sukarkaran Aur Viniyaman, Adhinyam, 2010 (2010 Ka Adhinyam Sankhyank 9) :-

(Authorised English Translation)

THE RAJASTHAN TOURISM TRADE (FACILITATION AND REGULATION) ACT, 2010
(Act No. 9 of 2010)

[Received the assent of the Governor on the 28th day of April, 2010]

An

to provide for acceleration of growth of tourism trade and industry in the State and to provide for, at various tourist destinations, facilities to the tourists visiting the State and to provide for certain measures to make their travel hassle free as also to regulate conduct of persons confronting them or dealing with them and for boosting tourism traffic at heritage sites and also to provide for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto.

Whereas, with a view to accelerate tourism potential of the State, it is expedient to declare specifically tourism sector and trade therein as an industry and to make better provisions for upkeep of places and locations frequented by tourists by making it a statutory duty of the local authorities and making compliance thereof mandatory as also to ensure removal of hindrances coming in the way of tourists and further to make their visit comfortable, easy and self-assuring, to adopt certain measures in the shape of establishment of Tourist Assistance Force to deal with persons like touts (which in common parlance are known as 'lapkas'), beggars, hawkers, taxi-car drivers, (which includes auto rickshaws and rickshaws) or any other elements who unduly harass or annoy the tourists so as to solicit and obtain undue pecuniary gain;

Whereas, it is further expedient to provide for setting out standards of services being provided by service providers and provide for recognition of service providers who are found to be of requisite standard and to provide for adherence by them to the stipulated norms and standards of the trade as also to provide for their obligation thereunder and also to provide for consequences of non-adherence thereof;

Whereas, it is further also expedient to provide for facilitation of growth of tourism trade and industry by offering avenues for investment by public-private partnership and to provide for collection of statistical data from service providers for the purpose of monitoring, future planning and growth of tourism trade and industry.

Be it enacted by the Rajasthan State Legislature in the Sixty-first Year of the Republic of India, as follows:-

CHAPTER-II

Recognition and registration of service providers and regulation of certain tourism trade related activities

3. Expert Committee for setting out norms, standard and general principles for recognition and registration of service providers.— (1) For the purpose of ensuring that services provided by service providers to the tourists are of acceptable standard, the State Government shall appoint a Committee to set out standards for service providers of various categories.

(2) After considering the recommendation of the Committee referred to in sub-section (1), the State Government shall declare standard and norms for recognition and registration of service providers and general principles governing such recognition and registration by framing and publishing a scheme of recognition and registration for general information. The scheme shall also classify the norms and standard, contravention of which shall be deemed minimal, graver or gravest for the purposes of section 4.

4. Recognition and registration of service providers, their obligations and consequences of non-adherence to norms and conditions of recognition.— (1) Any service provider operating or intending to operate as a service provider in the State, if and when desire to have itself/himself recognized by the Department of Tourism of the State, may apply to the prescribed authority in such manner and in such form as may be provided in the scheme framed under section 3.

(2) Every application presented under sub-section (1) shall be disposed of by the prescribed authority within ninety days from the date of receipt thereof.

(3) The prescribed authority shall, unless the application is rejected and recognition and registration is disallowed or refused, record particulars of the concerned service provider in the prescribed register of service providers which are recognized and registered as such. The register shall contain such particulars and shall be maintained in such form as may be prescribed.

(4) Whenever the application of a service provider is allowed and registered under sub-section (3), the prescribed authority shall issue a certificate of recognition and registration, in such form and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

(5) Where any application is rejected under sub-section (3), the prescribed authority shall record reasons thereof and communicate the same, in writing, to the applicant:

Provided that no application for recognition and registration shall be rejected or refused unless the applicant is heard and reasonable opportunity of being heard is afforded to him in the matter.

(6) Every service provider who is recognized and registered under this section shall be under an obligation to maintain the requisite standard and follow the norms of trade specified under the scheme framed and published under section 3.

(7) When any service provider fails to maintain the requisite standard of services provided by him or to comply with the norms of the trade or services offered and make default in discharging responsibility as recognized service provider as set out for him in the scheme made and published under section 3, then such service provider shall, besides being liable for imposition of penalty not exceeding the amount specified for each category of service providers in the Schedule, be derecognised and his name shall be struck off from the register and his certificate of recognition and registration shall be cancelled:

Provided that before imposing penalty and/or derecognising, cancelling registration of any service provider after striking of his name from the register, the prescribed authority shall serve a notice upon him calling him to show cause as to why the purported action should not be taken against him and afford him a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(8) Where the non-adherence to norms and standards is found to be minimal, the prescribed authority may, instead of proceeding against the service provider under sub-section (7), censure the service provider and ask him to be careful in future and where the breach of norms is graver, the prescribed authority, instead of proceeding under sub-section (7), impose upon the defaulting service provider a penalty, not exceeding the amount specified in the Schedule appended to this Act:

Provided that action under sub-section (7), may be taken only in such of the cases of default where violations of norms and standard are gravest and where situation does not improve even after censuring and/or penalizing the service provider.

(9) The register containing names and particulars of service providers shall constantly be maintained, updated and shall be available on the website of the Department of Tourism of the State Government for information of tourists and people in general and may also be published in Newspapers, other periodicals as also through other modes, at such intervals, as the Commissioner of the Department of Tourism may consider appropriate.

5. Appeal.— (1) An appeal against the order made under sub-section (7) or (8) of section 4 by the prescribed authority shall lie to the appellate authority.

(2) The appellate authority shall be appointed by the State Government and notified as such in the Official Gazette.

6. Exit from recognition and registration.— Any service provider recognised and registered under section 4 shall have liberty to seek exit out of recognition and registered entities by making such an intention made known in writing to the prescribed authority, at least three months prior to the date from which exit is sought and thereafter the prescribed authority shall deregister that service provider and his name shall be struck off from the register of recognition and registered service providers.

7. Registration of paying guest accommodation.— (1) No person shall allow or use his house as a paying guest accommodation unless he is registered with the Department of Tourism, in accordance with the paying guest scheme framed by that Department.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) or the provisions contained in the scheme framed thereunder, he shall be liable to be imposed with a penalty of rupees five hundred by the prescribed authority for first contravention and in case of second violation he shall be liable to be imposed with the penalty of rupees one thousand by the said authority.

(3) Where the contravention continues even after imposition of penalties under sub-section (2), the person contravening the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be liable to be with fine which may extend to rupees two thousand or with imprisonment which may extend to seven days or with both.

8. Licensing of Guides.— (1) The prescribed authority shall issue licences in the manner as may be prescribed to such number of Guides as the State Government may determine from time to time.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in any Rajasthan law, the Guides licensed by the prescribed authority shall be allowed free entry into all monuments and places of tourist interest situated within the State of Rajasthan under the control of any of the following, namely:—

- (a) Department of Archaeology and Museums, Government of Rajasthan; or
- (b) Forest Department, Government of Rajasthan; or
- (c) Any other Department or instrumentality of the State Government;

Provided that necessary permission shall have to be obtained by the Guides in respect of the monuments and places which are under the control of the following, namely: -

- (i) Archaeological Survey of India; or
- (ii) any private trust; or
- (iii) any other agency, which is not controlled by the State Government.

(3) The State Government shall frame rules for licensing of Guides and no person shall act as a Guide on payment of remuneration in lieu of providing services as a Guide unless he is licensed by the prescribed authority under sub-section (1) in accordance with the rules made under this Act.

(4) Whoever is found to be acting as a Guide, without obtaining licence from the prescribed authority, shall be liable to be imposed with a fine not exceeding rupees one thousand upon the matter being reported to the prescribed authority by any member of the Tourist Assistance Force or any officer of the Department of Tourism and the prescribed authority shall hold enquiry and afford opportunity of hearing to the person concerned before passing orders for imposition of fine.

(5) Whoever is found to be acting as a Guide, at any tourist destination, without obtaining licence from the prescribed authority, even after once fined for such an offence under sub-section (4), shall be liable to be arrested without warrant by any Police Officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector.

(6) Any person arrested under sub-section (5) shall be produced before the Judicial Magistrate having jurisdiction and such person shall, on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to fifteen days or with a fine which may extend to rupees two thousand or with both.

9. Regulation of certain tourism trade related activities.—The Commissioner shall, from time to time, make regulations with the prior approval of the State Government to regulate tourism trade related activities like amusement parks, facilities at ropeways at the sites of embarkation and disembarkation, elephant/camel/horse safari, tourist villages, resorts, rural tourism, handicrafts, and other facilities like restaurants, cafeterias in the tourist area or a tourist destination, for the purpose of regulating such services with the object of providing quality facilities and services to the tourists and to the local populace as also to ensure safety and good health of people using such services and for that purpose such regulations may include norms, standards, criteria and terms and conditions for settings up, running and continuing such services or activities:

Provided that if the regulation made under this section relates to any matter with respect to which there is a provision in any other law, rule, regulation or bye-law of the local authority in relation to public health, sanitation, licensing or with regard to safety, such regulation shall be subject to such law, rule, regulation or bye-law.

CHAPTER – III

Recovery of dues

10. Recovery of dues.—The amount of penalty imposed under the provisions of this Act, if not paid by the persons liable to pay within sixty days from the date of final order imposing penalty, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

19. Formulation of policy on heritage tourism.— (1) The State Government shall formulate policy on heritage tourism incorporating therein package of special concessions and incentives for heritage hotels, other heritage sites and heritage villages and provide general guidelines for development as also for facilitation and regulation thereof, and make it public in the form of booklets and afford wide publicity through media.

(2) Such policy may be revised by the State Government from time to time to pave the way for proper and timely growth of heritage tourism.

20. Guidelines for maintenance of good hygienic conditions at heritage sites.— (1) The State Government besides formulating policy on heritage tourism under section 19 shall have powers to issue special or general directions, from time to time, with regard to manner in which the liquid or solid waste, if any, generated by hotels, restaurants, kiosks, tea shops or stalls etc. near the heritage sites shall be disposed off.

(2) All activities pertaining to displaying of advertisements, erection of display hoardings etc. near the heritage precincts or sites shall be regulated by the rules or regulations framed by the State Government or the concerned local authorities.

(3) Whoever contravenes the directions given under sub-section (1) shall be liable to be imposed with a fine not exceeding rupees five thousand by the prescribed authority:

Provided that before imposition of fine, the prescribed authority shall hold enquiry and afford opportunity of hearing to the person concerned before passing orders for imposition of fine.

(4) Whoever further contravenes the directions issued under sub-section (1) even after imposition of fine or fines under sub-section (3), shall, on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with a fine which may extend to rupees twenty five thousand or with both.

(5) The contravention of provisions of sub-section (2) shall be dealt with by the concerned local authorities in accordance with law for the time being in force in the local area comprising the heritage sites or precincts.

CHAPTER – XI

Public- private participation in the tourism industry

21. Public-private participation in the tourism industry.– (1) Efforts shall be made by the Department of Tourism for inviting and effecting collaboration with private entrepreneurs in respect of those units of public sector undertakings which can give better results by such a measure.

(2) New viable projects or units servicing the tourism sector may be floated so as to attract private participation.

(3) Incentives may be offered to the entrepreneurs so as to generate feeling of assurance of viability and profitability in the trade.

CHAPTER-XII

Miscellaneous

22. Punishment for false display of recognition.– (1) Any service provider, who is not recognized and registered under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, falsely represents that he is recognized and registered by the Department of Tourism or the State Government as a service provider for specific services, the prescribed authority shall have power to impose a penalty of, not exceeding rupees ten thousand for the first such offence, and not exceeding rupees one lakh for second or subsequent offence:

Provided that before ordering imposition of penalty, the prescribed authority shall afford reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed action.

(2) An appeal against the order of the prescribed authority may be preferred by any aggrieved person within thirty days from the date of order, before the appellate authority and the order of the appellate authority shall be subject to review by the State Government.

(3) Where any service provider, even after imposition of penalty under sub-section (1), continues to display or show that he is recognized or registered as such by the Department of Tourism or the State Government, he shall, on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months or with fine or with both.

23. Punishment for malpractice or other contravention.— Whoever commits any malpractices in a tourist area or contravenes any of the provisions of this Act for which no specific penalty has been provided under this Act, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

24. Punishment for persistent contravention, violation or default.— Any person who commits further contravention, violation or default of any of the provisions of this Act even after the imposition of penalties and infliction of punishment specified under this Chapter shall, on conviction, be sentenced to such term of simple imprisonment which may extend to three months.

25. Protection of action taken in good faith.— No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding whatsoever shall lie against the State Government, or any functionary of the State Government or the Tourist Assistance Force personnel exercising powers under this Act or any person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act, or the rules, regulations or scheme made or framed thereunder.

26. Cognizance of offences by courts.— No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under Chapters II, IV, V, VII, X and XII of this Act save on the complaint made by or under the authority of the State Government or the prescribed authority.

27. Offences by companies.— (1) Where any contravention of any of the provisions of this Act is made by a company, every person who, at the time when the contravention was made, was incharge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the contravention and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the contravention took place without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent such contravention.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

- (a) "company" means, any body corporate, and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and
- (b) "director" in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

28. Powers of the prescribed authority to summon and enforce attendance of witnesses and other persons.— (1) The prescribed authority shall have all the powers which are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act No. 5 of 1908) in respect of the following matters, namely:-

- (i) summoning and enforcing attendance of a person against whom inquiry is to be conducted and witnesses required in connection therewith;
- (ii) compelling the production of any document; and
- (iii) examining witnesses on oath.

(2) In addition to that which is provided under sub-section (1), the prescribed authority shall have power to summon or examine suo motu any person whose evidence in his opinion appear to be material for reaching at a just conclusion in any matter being inquired into by him.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing the attendance of witnesses and other persons referred above, the local limits of jurisdiction of the prescribed authority shall extend to whole of the State.

29. Act to over ride other laws.— Save as otherwise provided under this Act, the provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other Rajasthan law for the time being in force or any custom or usage or instrument having effect by virtue of any such law.

30. Power to remove difficulties.— (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, do anything, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removal of difficulty:

Provided that no order under this section shall be made after expiry of two years from the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is so made, before the House of the State Legislature.

31. Power to make rules.— (1) The State Government may, by notification published in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after they are so made, before the House of the State Legislature, while it is in session, for a period of not less than fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or of the sessions immediately following, the House of the State Legislature makes any modification in the rule or resolves that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

32. Repeal and savings.— As from the commencement of this Act,-

- (i) any rules, orders and schemes made or framed in exercise of the executive power by the State Government which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, save as expressly provided in this Act, shall stand repealed and on such repeal, provisions of section 6 of the Rajasthan General Clauses Act, 1955 (Act No. 8 of 1955) shall apply as if the rules, orders and schemes so repealed were provisions of a Rajasthan Act;
- (ii) all rules, orders, schemes made or framed in exercise of the executive power by the State Government on the subject matter covered by this Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act which are consistent with the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to have been made or framed under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, until they are superseded by any new rules, orders or schemes made or framed under this Act.
