Schedule—I, II, III, IV and V.
AN ACT to consolidate, amend and replace the law relating to Panchayats with a view to ensure effective involvement of the Panchayati Raj Institutions in the local administration and developmental activities.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh in the Forty-Fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1994.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of the State of Himachal Pradesh, except the areas administered by a municipality.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification, appoint.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(1) “annual value” means,—

(i) double the land revenue for the time being assessed on any land whether the assessment is leviable or not; or

(ii) where the land revenue has been permanently assessed, or has been wholly or in part compounded or redeemed, double the amount which, but for such permanent assessment, composition or redemption, would have been leviable; or

(iii) where no land revenue has been assessed, double the amount which would have been assessed if the average village rate had been applied:

Provided that, in any tract in which, under the settlement for the time being in force, the improvement of the land due to canal irrigation has been excluded from account in assessing the land revenue and rate has been imposed in respect of such improvement, that rate shall be added to the land revenue for the purpose of computing the annual value;

CHAPTER-II

GRAM SABHA

3. Declaration of Sabha area.—(1) The Government may, by notification, declare any village or group of contiguous villages with a population of not less than one thousand and not more than five thousand to constitute one or more Sabha areas for the purposes of this Act and also specify its headquarter:

Provided that in a Scheduled area the Government may by order declare any village or group of contiguous villages with a population of less than one thousand to constitute a Sabha area:

Provided further that the Government may, after having due regard of the geographical location, lack of means of transport and communication and administrative convenience, declare an area comprising a village or group of contiguous villages having a population either less than one thousand or more than five thousand to constitute a Sabha area.

(2) The Government may, at the request of the Gram Sabha concerned or otherwise, and after previous publication of a proposal by notification, at any time,—

(a) increase any Sabha area by including within such Sabha area any village or group of villages; or

(b) diminish any Sabha area by excluding from such Sabha area any village or group of villages; or

(c) alter the headquarter of any Sabha area; or

(d) alter the name of any Sabha area; or

(e) declare that any area shall cease to be a Sabha area:

Provided that the reallocation of any Sabha area under this sub-section shall not have the effect till the expiration of the term of elected members of the existing Gram Panchayat.

(3) If the whole of the Sabha area is included in a municipality, the Sabha area shall cease to exist and its assets and liabilities shall in the manner prescribed be disposed of.

4. Establishment of Gram Sabha.—(1) The Government may, by order, constitute a Gram Sabha by name in every Sabha area.

(2) For every Gram Sabha established under sub-section (1), there shall be a list of voters which shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(3) Every person who is qualified to be registered in the Legislative Assembly as a resident to the Sabha area whose name is entered therein and is ordinarily resident within the Gram Sabha area shall be entitled to be registered in the list of voters of that Sabha area.
Provided that no person shall be entitled to be registered in the list of voters for more than one Sabha area.

Explanation-I.—The expression “ordinarily resident” shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 20 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (43 of 1950) subject to the modification that reference to “constituency” therein will be construed as a reference to “Sabha area”.

Explanation-II.—A person shall be disqualified for registration in the list of voters of Sabha area if he is disqualified for registration in the Legislative Assembly roll.

5. Meetings and quorum of Sabha.—(1) Every Sabha shall hold two general meetings in each year, one in the summer and the other in the winter and it shall be the responsibility of the Pradhan to convene such meetings:

Provided that not more than eight months shall intervene between the two general meetings unless a relaxation is allowed by the prescribed authority in this behalf:

Provided further that the Pradhan may, at any time or upon a requisition in writing of not less than one-fifth of the members of the Gram Sabha or if required by the Panchayat Samiti, Zila Parishad or the Deputy Commissioner, shall, within 30 days from the receipt of such requisition, call an extraordinary general meeting:

Provided further that where a Pradhan fails to convene the meetings under this sub-section, the prescribed authority shall convene such meetings within a period of thirty days.

(2) The time and place of all the meetings of the Gram Sabha shall be published in the prescribed manner.

(3) For any general meeting of the Gram Sabha, one-fifth of the total number of its members shall form a quorum and decisions will be taken by a majority of members present and voting.

Provided that, for a meeting adjourned for want of quorum, at least one-fifth of the total number of its members shall be required for holding the adjourned meeting.

(4) The meetings of the Gram Sabha shall be presided over by Pradhan or in absence of Pradhan by Up-Pradhan. In the event of both Pradhan and Up-Pradhan being absent, the meeting of Gram Sabha shall be presided over by a member of the Gram Sabha to be elected for the purpose by the majority of members present in the meeting.

6. Defect or omission in enrolment of members not to vitiate act or proceedings of the Gram Sabha.—No defect or omission in the enrolment of a member shall vitiate any act or proceeding of a Gram Sabha if not less than two-thirds of the members at the time when the act is done, or the proceedings are taken, were duly qualified members thereof.
7. Function of Gram Sabha.—(1) The Gram Sabha shall perform the following functions, namely:

(a) mobilise voluntary labour and contribution in kind and cash for the Community Welfare Programmes;

(b) identification of beneficiaries for the implementation of developmental schemes pertaining to the village;

(c) rendering assistance in the implementation of developmental schemes pertaining to the village;

(d) promotion of unity and harmony among all sections of society in the Sabha area;

(e) seek clarifications from the Pradhan, Up-Pradhan and members of the Gram Panchayat about any particular activity, scheme, income and expenditure; and

(f) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(2) The Gram Sabha shall consider the following matters, and make recommendations and suggestions to the Gram Panchayat, namely:

(a) the annual statement of accounts of the Gram Panchayat, the report of the administration of the preceding financial year and the last audit note and replies, if any, made thereon;

(b) the report in respect of development programmes of the Gram Panchayat relating to the preceding year and development programmes proposed to be undertaken during the current year;

(c) the promotion of unity and harmony among all sections of society in the village;

(d) the programme of adult education within the village;

(e) any other matter which the Panchayat Samiti, Zila Parishad the Deputy Commissioner or any other officer authorised in this behalf may require to be placed before the Gram Sabha; and

(f) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(3) The Gram Panchayat shall give due consideration to the recommendations and suggestions of the Gram Sabha.

(4) The Gram Sabha may also form one or more vigilance committee(s) consisting of not less than five persons who are not members of the Gram Panchayat, to supervise the Gram panchayat works, schemes and other activities and to put up reports concerning them in its meeting and shall also send a copy of the said report to such an authority as may be prescribed for this purpose.
8. Constitution of Gram Panchayats.—(1) There shall be a Gram Panchayat for a Gram Sabha and every Gram Sabha shall in the prescribed manner, elect from amongst its members a Pradhan and an Up-Pradhan of the Sabha, who shall also be called the Pradhan and Up-Pradhan of the Gram Panchayat and shall also elect from amongst its members an Executive Committee called the Gram Panchayat consisting of such number of persons not being less than seven and more than fifteen, including Pradhan and Up-Pradhan, as the Government may by notification determine;

Provided that the number of members, excluding Pradhan and Up-Pradhan to be assigned to each Gram Sabha shall be determined on the following scale:

(a) with a population not exceeding 1500

(b) with a population exceeding 1500 but not exceeding 2500

(c) with a population exceeding 2500 but not exceeding 3500

(d) with a population exceeding 3500 but not exceeding 4500

(e) with a population exceeding 4500

Provided further that the number of members of a Gram Panchayat, excluding Pradhan and Up-Pradhan, shall be determined in such a manner that the ratio between the population of the Gram Sabha and the number of seats of members in such a Panchayat to be filled by election shall, so far as practicable, be the same throughout the Sabha area.

(2) Seats shall be reserved in a Gram Panchayat—

(a) for the Scheduled Castes, and

(b) for the Scheduled Tribes, and the number of seats so reserved shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of seats in the Gram Panchayat as the population of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes in the Sabha area bears to the total population of the Sabha area:

Provided that in case no reservation of seats is possible as aforesaid due to small population of the Scheduled Castes and the population of Scheduled Castes of the Sabha area is at least five per cent of the total population of the Sabha area, one seat shall be reserved for the Scheduled Castes in such a Gram Panchayat;

Provided further that where there is no eligible candidate belonging to the Scheduled Castes to be elected as a member of the Gram Panchayat, no seat shall be reserved for Scheduled Castes:

Provided further that in non-tribal areas where there is Scheduled Tribes population in a Gram Sabha, seats shall be reserved for such members of the Scheduled Tribes within the reservation provided for the members of the Scheduled Castes and the determination of seats to be reserved amongst the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes shall be in proportion to their population in that Gram Sabha.

Explanation.—The expression “non-tribal area” for the purpose of this proviso shall mean the areas other than the Scheduled areas specified in relation to the State of Himachal Pradesh.

(3) Not less than one-third of seats reserved in each category, for persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and of the non-reserved seats in the Gram Panchayat shall be reserved for women.

(4) The State Government may, by general or special order, reserve such number of seats for persons belonging to Backward Classes in a Gram Panchayat, not exceeding the proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in the Gram Panchayat as the population of the persons belonging to Backward Classes in that Gram Sabha area bears to the total population of that area and may further reserve not less than one-third of the total seats reserved under this sub-section for women belonging to Backward Classes.

(5) The seats reserved under sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) shall be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in the Sabha area in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) If for any reason an election to any Gram Panchayat does not result in the election of required number of persons as specified in sub-section (1), the Deputy Commissioner, shall within one month from the date on which the names of the elected persons are published by him under section 126 arrange another election to make up the deficiency.

9. Meetings of Gram Panchayat.—(1) The meeting of the Gram Panchayat shall be public and shall be held at least once a month at the office of the Gram Panchayat and at such time as the Pradhan may fix:

Provided that the Pradhan, when required in writing by a majority of the members to call a meeting, shall do so within three days, failing which the said members shall, with the previous approval of the prescribed authority, be entitled to call a meeting after giving a notice of one week to the Pradhan and the other members.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules framed thereunder one-half of the members of the Gram Panchayat shall form a quorum.

(3) The decisions of the Gram Panchayat shall be by majority and when the voting is equal, the Pradhan, in his absence, the Up-Pradhan, shall have an additional or casting vote.
10. Maintenance of Gram Panchayat records etc.—The Secretary of the Gram Panchayat, under the overall supervision of the Pradhan and in his absence under the supervision of the Up-Pradhan, shall be responsible for the custody and maintenance of all prescribed records and registers and other property belonging to or vested in the Gram Sabha or the Gram Panchayat.

11. Functions of Gram Panchayat.—(1) It shall be the duty of a Gram Panchayat in so far as the Gram Panchayat funds allow to perform within its area the functions specified in Scheduled-I

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the State Government may, by general or special order, entrust to the Gram Panchayat preparation of plans and implementation of schemes for economic development and social justice specified in Schedule-II.

(3) The State Government may, by general or special order, add to any of the functions of the Gram Panchayat or withdraw the functions and duties entrusted to such a Gram Panchayat, when the State Government undertakes the execution of any of the functions entrusted to the Gram Panchayat, the Gram Panchayat shall not be responsible for such functions so long as the State Government does not re-entrust such functions to the Gram Panchayat.

(4) The Government may, by notification and subject to such conditions as may be specified therein,—

(a) transfer to any Gram Panchayat the management and maintenance of a forest situated in the Gram Sabha area;

(b) make over to the Gram Panchayat the management of waste lands, pasture lands or vacant lands belonging to the Government situated within the Gram Sabha area;

(c) entrust to the Gram Panchayat the protection of any irrigation work and its execution and the regulation/distribution of water from any such work;

(d) transfer to the Gram Panchayat any public property situated within the jurisdiction of the Gram Sabha;

(2) If by reason of the number of Panches disqualified under sub-section (1) there remains no quorum the Gram Panchayat shall send the case to the Judicial Magistrate or the Sub-Judge or the Collector having jurisdiction, as the case may be, for disposal in accordance with law.

Explanation.—'Near relation' means father, grandfather, father-in-law, maternal or paternal uncle, son, grand-son, son-in-law, brother, nephew, brother-in-law, wife, sister, sister's husband, mother, daughter, niece, mother-in-law, daughter-in-law and husband.

31. Territorial jurisdiction.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 (2 of 1774) every case instituted under this Act shall be instituted before the Pradhan, or in his absence before the Up-Pradhan, of the Gram Panchayat of the Sabha area in which the offence was committed.
(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 (5 of 1908), or in the Himachal Pradesh Tenancy and Land Reforms Act, 1972 (8 of 1974), every suit instituted under this Act shall be instituted before the Pradhan, or in his absence before Up-Pradhan, of the Gram Panchayat of the Gram Sabha area in which the defendant, or any of the defendants, where they are more than one, ordinarily resides or carries on business at the time of the institution of the suit irrespective of the place where the cause of action arose.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Himachal Pradesh Land Revenue Act, 1953, (6 of 1954) every proceeding specified under section 48 shall be transferred by the revenue court concerned to the Gram Panchayat within the local area in which the land concerned is situated and the Gram Panchayat shall decide such proceedings in the manner prescribed:

Provided that where land is included in the local area of more than one Gram Panchayats, the revenue court concerned shall transfer the proceedings to the Gram Panchayat within the area of which the greater part of the land is situated.

32. Offences cognizable by Gram Panchayats.—(1) Offences mentioned in Schedule-III or declared by the State Government to be cognizable by a Gram Panchayat, if committed within the jurisdiction of a Gram Panchayat, and abetment of and attempts to commit such offences shall be cognizable by such Gram Panchayat.

(2) Application for maintenance under section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) shall be heard and decided by the Gram Panchayat. A Gram Panchayat may grant a maintenance allowance not exceeding five hundred rupees per month on such application without prejudice to any other law for the time being in force in this behalf.

33. Penalties.—A Gram Panchayat may impose a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees but shall not inflict a sentence of imprisonment either substantive or in default of payment of fine.

34. No cognizance by Courts.—No Court shall take cognizance of any case, suit or proceeding which is cognizable under this Act by a Gram Panchayat-established for the area to which the case, suit or proceeding relates unless an order has been passed under section 67.

35. Transfer of criminal proceedings to the Gram Panchayat in certain cases.—If, at any stage of the proceedings in a criminal case pending before a Magistrate, it appears that the case is triable by a Gram Panchayat, he shall once transfer the case to that Gram Panchayat which shall try the case de novo.

36. Summary disposal of complaint.—A Gram Panchayat may dismiss any complaint, if after examining the complaint and taking such evidence as he produces, it is satisfied that the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or untrue.

37. Return of complaints.—If, at any time, it appears to a Gram Panchayat,—

(a) that it has no jurisdiction to try any case before it; or
(b) that the offence is one for which it cannot award adequate punishment; or

(c) that the case is of such a nature or complexity that it should be tried by a regular court, it shall return the complaint to the complainant directing him to file it before the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try such case.

38. Certain persons not be to tried by the Gram Panchayat.—No Gram Panchayat shall take cognizance of any offence where the accused—

(a) has been previously convicted of an offence punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term of three years or more; or

(b) has been previously fined under section 379 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860) by any Gram Panchayat or has been previously convicted and sentenced under the said section by a Court; or

(c) has been bound over to be of good behaviour under section 109 or 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974); or

(d) has been previously convicted of gambling; or

(e) is Government servant and the pecuniary off is the one done in his official capacity.

39. Compensation to the accused.—If a Gram Panchayat is satisfied after enquiry that a case brought before it was false, frivolous or vexatious, it may order the complainant to pay to the accused such compensatory not exceeding two hundred rupees, as it thinks fit.

40. Enquiry in cases forwarded by a Magistrate.—A Magistrate may direct an inquiry to be made under section 202 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) by a Gram Panchayat in any case in which the offence was committed within the territorial jurisdiction of such Gram Panchayat and the Gram Panchayat shall inquire into the case and submit its report to the said Magistrate.

41. Extent of jurisdiction.—(1) The jurisdiction of a Gram Panchayat shall extend to any suit of the following description if its value does not exceed two thousand rupees:—

(a) a suit for money due on contract other than a contract in respect of immovable property;

(b) a suit for the recovery of movable property or for the value thereof;

(c) a suit for compensation for wrongfully taking or damaging a movable property;
(d) a suit for damages caused by cattle trespass; and

(e) a suit under clauses (f) and (i) of sub-section (3) of section 58 of the Himachal Pradesh Tenancy and Land Reforms Act, 1972 (8 of 1974).

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the State Government or the prescribed authority may, by notification in the Official Gazette, extend the pecuniary jurisdiction of Gram Panchayat to five thousand ruppes in respect of any or all the suits of the description mentioned in subsection (1).

42. Extension of jurisdiction by agreement of parties.—Parties to a suit may, by a written agreement, refer any suit of the nature mentioned in section 59 to a Gram Panchayat for decision by it and the Gram Panchayat shall, subject to the rules prescribed, determine and dispose of such suit under this Act.

43. Application for transfer of cases from one Gram Panchayat to another Gram Panchayat.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this chapter, if in any criminal case or civil suit or revenue proceeding before a Gram Panchayat a party intimates at any stage before the pronouncement of the final order or decree, that it intends to put up an application under this section to the Judicial Magistrate or the Sub-Judge or the Collector, as the case may be, for transfer of the case, suit or proceeding, the Gram Panchayat shall direct the applicant to make such application within a reasonable time to be fixed by the Gram Panchayat, which shall not be less than fifteen days and adjourn the case, suit or proceeding for such period as will afford sufficient time for the application to be put up and an order to be obtained thereon:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall require the Gram Panchayat to adjourn the case, suit or proceeding upon a second or subsequent intimation from the same party.

(2) The Judicial Magistrate or the Sub-Judge or the Collector, as the case may be, may upon such application, for reasons to be recorded in writing, transfer the case, suit or proceeding to another Gram Panchayat within his jurisdiction which shall try or hear the case, suit or proceeding, as the case may be.

44. Exclusion of Gram Panchayat jurisdiction.—A Gram Panchayat shall have no jurisdiction to take cognizance of any of the following suits:

(a) a suit for a balance of partnership account;

(b) a suit for a share or part of a share under intestacy or for a legacy or part of legacy under a will;

(c) a suit by or against the State or a public servant for acts done in official capacity; and

(d) a suit by or against a minor, or a person of unsound mind.

45. Suit to include the whole claim.—(1) Every suit, instituted before a Gram Panchayat shall include the whole of the claim which the plaintiff is entitled to make in respect of the matter in dispute, but he may relinquish any portion of his claim in order to bring it within the jurisdiction of the Gram Panchayat.

(2) If a plaintiff omits to sue in respect of or relinquishes any portion of the claim, he shall not afterwards sue in respect of the portion so omitted or relinquished.

46. Limitation.—Every suit instituted before a Gram Panchayat after the period of limitation prescribed therefor in Schedule-I V shall be dismissed, even though limitation has not been set up as a defence:

Provided that in computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit the time during which the plaintiff has prosecuted with due diligence the suit against the defendant in any court shall be excluded where such suit is founded upon the same cause of action and was prosecuted in good faith in a court which from defect of jurisdiction or any cause of like nature was unable to entertain it.

47. Effect of decision by Gram Panchayat.—The decision of the Gram Panchayat on the question of title, legal character, contract or obligation shall not, bind the parties except in respect of the suit in which such matter is decided.

48. Proceeding under section 46 of the H.P. Land Revenue Act.—(1) The revenue court concerned shall transfer to the Gram Panchayat, if any, having jurisdiction, all applications under section 46 of the Himachal Pradesh Land Revenue Act, 1953 (6 of 1954) if the relief required is the restoration of possession to the lawful occupant who is found to have been wrongfully dispossessed of landed property within a period of three months, previous to the date of filing the application in the office of the revenue court concerned:

Provided that the revenue court concerned may for sufficient reasons to be recorded, forward any such application to the Sub-Divisional Officer who shall decide whether the application should or should not be transferred to the Gram Panchayat.

(2) A revenue officer may, in proceeding under section 46 of the said Act, call for a report from the Gram Panchayat on a question of fact.

49. Procedure in revenue proceedings.—In proceedings under the Himachal Pradesh Land Revenue Act, 1953 (6 of 1954) the Gram Panchayat shall follow the prescribed procedure.

50. Res judicata.—No Gram Panchayat shall try any suit, proceedings or issue in respect of any matter which is pending for decision, or has been heard or decided by a court of competent jurisdiction in a former suit between the same parties or between the parties under whom they or any of them claim.

51. Double jeopardy.—Where a case is pending in any court against an accused person in respect of any offence or where an accused person has been tried for any offence, no Gram Panchayat shall take cognizance of any such offence or on the same facts of any other offence of which the accused might have been charged or convicted.
52. Concurrent jurisdiction.—Where a case, suit or proceeding is maintainable in more than one Gram Panchayat the plaintiff or the complainant or the applicant, as the case may be, may bring the case, suit or proceeding in any one of such Gram Panchayats. Any dispute regarding jurisdiction shall be decided by the Judicial Magistrate, Sub-Judge or the Collector having jurisdiction, as the case may be.

53. Institution of suits and cases.—(1) Any person may institute a case, suit or proceeding before a Gram Panchayat by an oral or written application to the Pradhan, or in his absence to the Up-Pradhan, of the Gram Panchayat and shall at the same time pay the prescribed fee. The Himachal Pradesh Court Fees Act, 1968 (5 of 1968) shall not apply to Gram Panchayat except as may be prescribed.

(2) In every suit the plaintiff shall state its value.

54. Recording of substance of the complaints and application and appointment of benches.—(1) Where a case, suit or a proceeding is instituted orally, the Pradhan or the Up-Pradhan receiving the complaint or application shall record without delay the prescribed particulars and take the signature or thumb impression of the complainant or applicant thereon.

(2) On recording the substance of the complaint or application in the register under sub-section (1) the Pradhan or in his absence the Up-Pradhan, as the case may be, shall, or on a reference by a revenue court concerned, appoint a bench of the Gram Panchayat consisting of three Panches and refer the said complaint or application to that bench for disposal and shall also fix a date for the first hearing of the complaint or application before the said bench and give notice of the said date to the complainant or the applicant and to the Panches thereof:

Provided that no Panch who is a member of the Gram Sabha in the ward for election to the Gram Panchayat in which ward the place of occurrence of the case lies, or in which ward the cause of action for the suit arose, as the case may be, shall be included on the bench.

(3) On the date fixed for the first hearing of case, suit or proceedings the bench formed under sub-section (2), shall, unless the Pradhan or Up-Pradhan is a member of it, choose one of the Panches to be the Chairman of that bench to conduct the proceedings and shall take up and hear the case, suit or proceedings as the case may be, in the prescribed manner.

(4) For the purposes of judicial functions, a Gram Panchayat shall include a bench thereof.

55. Absence of parties in cases and suits.—(1) If the complainant or the plaintiff or the applicant fails to appear after having been informed of the time and place fixed for hearing the Gram Panchayat may dismiss the case, suit or proceeding or pass such order as it may deem fit.

(2) The Gram Panchayat may hear and decide the suit or proceeding in the absence of the defendant or opposite party if the summons have been served upon him or if he has been informed of the time and place fixed for hearing.
56. Gram Panchayat not to revise or alter its decision.—(1) Except as provided in sub-section (2) or to correct a clerical error, a Gram Panchayat shall have no power to cancel, revise or alter any decree or order passed by it.

(2) On an application made within one month of the date of the decree or order or knowledge thereof in case personal service of summons has not been affected, a Gram Panchayat, may for sufficient reasons to be recorded, restore any suit or proceedings which have been dismissed in default or set aside a decree or order which has been passed ex parte.

57. No legal practitioner to appear.—No legal practitioner shall appear, plead or act, on behalf of any party in any suit, case or proceeding before a Gram Panchayat.

58. Appearance in person or by representative.—Subject to the provisions of section 57 any party to a suit, case or proceeding may appear before a Gram Panchayat either in person or by such servant (not being a tout or a petition-writer), partner or relation authorised by him and permitted by Gram Panchayat to represent him.

59. Compromise (1)—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, a Gram Panchayat may decide any civil or revenue dispute arising in its local area and not pending in any court in accordance with any settlement or promise or oath agreed upon by the parties and likewise decide a case if compoundable.

(2) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that a Gram Panchayat shall exercise the power vested in it under sub-section (1) in respect of such cases, suits or proceedings with reference to which it has power to decide.

60. Procedure and power to ascertain truth (1)—The Gram Panchayat shall receive such evidence in a case, suit or proceeding as the parties may adduce and may call for such further evidence as, in their opinion, may be necessary for the determination of the points in issue.

(2) The Gram Panchayat may make local investigation in the village to which the dispute relates.

(3) It would be the duty of the Gram Panchayat to ascertain the facts of every case, suit or proceeding before it by every lawful means, in its power and thereafter to make such decree, or order, with or without costs as it may deem just and legal.

(4) The Gram Panchayat shall follow the procedure prescribed by or under this Act. The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872) the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) and the Limitation Act, 1963 (36 of 1963) shall not apply to any suit, case or proceedings before a Gram Panchayat except as provided in this Act or as may be prescribed.

61. Majority to prevail.—In the event of any disagreement between the Panches, while deciding a criminal case, suit or proceeding, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.
62. Dismissal of suits etc.—A Gram Panchayat may dismiss any suit or proceeding if after examining the plaintiff or the applicant it is satisfied that the suit or proceeding is frivolous, vexatious or untrue.

63. Summons to defendant or accused.—A Gram Panchayat, after an application is made under section 53, shall, unless it has been dismissed or otherwise disposed of under the provisions of this Act, cause summons in the prescribed form to be served on the defendant or the accused person or an opposite party requiring him to attend and produce his evidence at such time and place as may be stated in the summons and shall at the same time direct the plaintiff or complainant or the applicant to attend and produce his evidence at such time and place.

64. Failure of the accused to appear.—(1) If the accused fails to appear or cannot be found, the Gram Panchayat shall report the fact to the nearest Magistrate.

(2) The Magistrate shall, on the receipt of a report under sub-section (1), issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused and shall direct by an endorsement on the warrant that if such person executes a bond with sufficient sureties for his attendance before himself in the manner provided by section 7 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) he shall be released from custody.

(3) When the accused appears before the Magistrate he shall direct him to execute a bond with or without sureties to appear before the Gram Panchayat, Pradhan or Up-Pradhan or any Panch on such date as he may direct and thereafter to continue to appear before the Gram Panchayat as directed by such person or the Gram Panchayat.

(4) On his failure to execute such bond the Magistrate shall order that the accused be produced in custody before the person mentioned in sub-section (3) or the Gram Panchayat on such date not more than fifteen days later as he may direct.

(5) If the accused fails to appear before the Gram Panchayat after executing a bond under sub-section (3), the Gram Panchayat shall report the fact to the Magistrate before whom the bond was executed, and such Magistrate shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XXXIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).

65. Issue of summons to witnesses.—A Gram Panchayat may if it considers the evidence of, or the production of a document by any person necessary in a suit, case or proceeding issue and cause to be served in the prescribed manner, summons on such person to compel his attendance or to produce or cause the production of such document and such person shall be bound to comply with the direction contained in the summons.

66. Penalties for failing to appear before the Gram Panchayat.—If any person who is summoned by a Gram Panchayat by a written order to appear, to give evidence or to produce any document before it, wilfully disobeys such summons or notice or order, the Gram Panchayat may make a complaint to the Magistrate having jurisdiction and the said person shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty five rupees;
Provided that no woman shall be compelled to appear in person before the Gram Panchayat, and she may be examined on commission in the manner prescribed:

Provided further that if a document is produced in obedience to a summons issued under this section, the Gram Panchayat shall cause the document to be copied, mark the copy, after comparing with the original to be true copy and return the original document to the person producing the same.

67. Appeal.—Any person aggrieved by an order or decree of a Bench of the Gram Panchayat may appeal within a period of thirty days from the date of such order or decree to the Judicial Magistrate/Sub-Judge in respect of any case or suit, as the case may be, and the Collector concerned in respect of any proceedings under the Himachal Pradesh Land Revenue Act, 1953 (6 of 1954).

68. Finality of decree or order of the Gram Panchayat.—A decree or order passed by a Gram Panchayat in any suit, case or proceedings under this Act shall be final subject to the provisions of section 67.

69. Frivolous appeals.—If any application under section 67 is frivolous the appellant may be fined up to rupees fifty by the Judicial Magistrate, Sub-Judge or Collector concerned, as the case may be.

70. Payment or adjustment of decree to be recorded.—If on the application of the decree holder or the judgment debtor the Gram Panchayat which passed the decree finds after inquiry that the decree has been satisfied wholly or in part, the Gram Panchayat shall record the fact in the prescribed register.

71. Execution of decrees.—(1) A decree or order passed by a Gram Panchayat shall be executed in such manner as may be prescribed. If the property of the defendant is situated outside the jurisdiction of the Gram Panchayat passing such order or decree, it may transfer the decree or order for execution in the prescribed manner to the Gram Panchayat within whose jurisdiction the property may be situated and if there be no such Gram Panchayat then to the court of the Sub-Judge within whose jurisdiction it may be situated and the said Gram Panchayat or the Sub-Judge, as the case may be, shall execute the decree or order as if it were a decree or order passed by it or him.

(2) If a Gram Panchayat finds any difficulty in executing a decree, it may forward the decree to the Sub-Judge and the Sub-Judge shall then execute the decree as if it were a decree passed by him.

(3) An order under the Himachal Pradesh Land Revenue Act, 1953 (6 of 1954), shall, as far as possible, be executed as provided in sub-sections (1) and (2). Sub-section (2) shall be read and construed as if for the word "Sub-Judge" the words "Collector concerned" were substituted.

72. Recovery of fines.—The fine imposed in a case by a Gram Panchayat shall be recoverable in the manner prescribed. If the Gram Panchayat finds any difficulty in its recovery, it may request the Judicial Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the Gram Panchayat lies, to recover it and he shall recover it as if the sentence of fine had been passed by him.
73. Protection to Gram Panchayats.—The provisions of the Judicial Officers Protection Act, 1850 (18 of 1850) shall apply to the members of the Gram Panchayat, in respect of the acts done by them in judicial capacity.

74. Duty of police towards Gram Panchayats.—Every police officer shall give immediate information in the prescribed manner to the Gram Panchayat of an offence coming to his knowledge which has been committed within the jurisdiction of the Gram Panchayat and is triable by the Gram Panchayat and shall assist all Panches and servants of the Gram Panchayat in the exercise of their lawful authority.

75. Proceeds of fees and fines etc.—All sums realised by way of court fees in any case, suit or proceeding or by way of fine in cases tried and disposed of by Gram Panchayat shall be handed over by the State Government to the Gram Panchayat in the prescribed manner.

76. Conviction by Gram Panchayat not to be a previous conviction.—No conviction by a Gram Panchayat shall be deemed to be a previous conviction for the purpose of section 73 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860) or section 356 or 360 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974)

CHAPTER-VII

FINANCE, TAXATION AND RECOVERY OF CLAIMS

98. Finance Commission for Panchayats.—(1) The government shall within one year from the commencement of the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992 and thereafter at expiration of every fifth year constitute a Finance Commission to review the financial position of Panchayats and to make recommendations to the Government as to—

(a) the principles which should govern—

(i) the distribution between the State and the Panchayats of the net proceeds of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees leviable by the Government which may be divided between them and a location between the Panchayats of their respective shares of such proceeds;

(ii) the determination of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees which may be assigned to or appropriated by the Panchayats;

(iii) the grants-in-aid to Panchayats from the Consolidated Fund of the State.

(b) the measures needed to improve the financial position of the Panchayats;

(c) any other matter referred to the Finance Commission by the Government in the interest of the sound finance of the Panchayats.

(2) The Finance Commission shall consist of a Chairman and two other members.

(3) The Chairman and members of the Finance Commission shall possess such qualifications and shall be paid such salary and allowances and shall be appointed in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) The Chairman or a member of the Finance Commission may resign his office by writing under his hand and addressed to the Government, but he shall continue in office until his resignation is accepted.

(5) The casual vacancy created by the resignation of the member or Chairman under sub-section (4) or for any other reason may be filled by fresh appointment and a member or Chairman so appointed shall hold office for the remaining period for which the member or Chairman in whose place he was appointed would have held office.

(7) The Commission shall have the following powers in the performance of its functions, namely:

(a) to call for any record from any officer or authority;
(b) to summon any person to give evidence or produce record; and
(c) such other powers as may be prescribed.

(8) The Government shall cause every recommendation made by the Finance Commission under this section together with an explanatory memorandum as to the action taken thereon to be laid before the State Legislative Assembly.

99. Panchayat Fund.—(1) Every Panchayat shall establish a fund to be called the Panchayat Fund and all sums received by the Panchayat, shall form part of the said Fund.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, all property vested in the Panchayat and the Panchayat Fund shall be applied for the purposes of this Act or for other purposes connected with the activities for the development of Panchayat generally or for such other expenses as the State Government may approve on an application of the Panchayat or otherwise in the public interest. The Panchayat Fund shall be kept in the nearest Government Treasury or Sub-Treasury or Post Office or Co-operative Bank or Scheduled Bank.

(3) An amount allotted to the Panchayat by the State Government or any other person or local authority for any specified work or purpose shall be utilised exclusively for such work or purpose and in accordance with such instruction as the State Government may either generally or specially issue in this behalf.

(4) The amount from the Gram Panchayat Fund shall be withdrawn only under the joint signatures of the Secretary of Gram Panchayat and Pradhan or any other member of the Gram Panchayat authorised by the Gram Panchayat.

(5) The amount from the Panchayat Samiti Fund shall be withdrawn only under the joint signatures of the executive officer, by whatever name called, the Panchayat Samiti and Chairman or any other member of the Panchayat Samitis authorised by the Panchayat Samiti.

(6) The amount from the Zila Parishad Fund shall be withdrawn only under the joint signatures of the Secretary, by whatever name called, of the Zila Parishad and Chairman or any other member of the Zila Parishad authorised by the Zila Parishad.

100. Levy of taxes and fees by Gram Panchayats.—(1) Subject to such maximum rates as the Government may fix and the provisions of the rules made under this Act or any order made by the Government in this behalf, a Gram Panchayat shall impose—

(a) a house tax payable by the occupier, or, where a house is vacant, by the owner:

Provided that if any house remains vacant for a period of one year or more, it shall be exempted from payment of the house tax;
(b) with the previous approval of the Government, a tax on persons engaged on any profession, trade, calling and employment other than agriculture in the Sabha area; provided such tax has not been imposed in the Sabha area by any other local authority under any law for the time being in force;

(c) if so authorised by the Government a duty on transfers of property in the form of a surcharge on the duty imposed by the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (2 of 1899) in its application to Himachal Pradesh, on instruments of sale, gift and mortgage with possession of immoveable property situated in the Sabha area at such rate as may be fixed by the Government not exceeding two percent on, as the case may be, the amount of the consideration, the value of the property or the amount secured by the mortgage, as set forth in the instrument; and

(d) if so authorised by the Government, any other tax, duty or cess which the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh has power to impose:

Provided that if the Gram Panchayat fails to impose the tax, duty or cess, the Government may take necessary steps to impose it and the tax, duty or cess so imposed shall be deemed to have been imposed by the Gram Panchayat:

Provided further that the Government may at any time withdraw the authorisation under clause (c) or clause (d) whereupon the tax, duty or cess shall cease to be levied.

(2) Subject to such maximum rates as the Government may prescribe, a Gram Panchayat may levy the following fees, namely —

(i) tehs-bazari from the shop-keepers in fairs;
(ii) service fee including fee on cleaning of streets and sanitation;
(iii) fees for registration of animals sold in the Sabha area; and
(iv) water rate where water is supplied by the Gram Panchayat.

101. Special tax for community services.—A Gram Panchayat may with the previous permission of the Deputy Commissioner, impose a special tax on the adult male members of the Gram Panchayat area for the construction of any public works of general utility for the inhabitants of the said area.

Provided that it may exempt any member from payment of this tax in lieu of doing voluntary labour or having it done by another person on his behalf.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression "adult male member" means a male member who has attained the age of 21 years.

102. Commutation of tax by labour.—A Gram Panchayat may with the consent of the person by whom any tax is payable under this Act, commute the payment into a contribution of labour not exceeding twenty fou-units of labour in any one year, at such intervals, for such period of time and on such conditions, as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—One unit of labour means four hours of manual labour.

103. Local rate.—(1) Except as hereinafter provided all land shall be subject to payment of a rate to be called the "local rate" at such rate of its annual value not exceeding twenty-five per cent as Government may determine from time to time.

(2) The Government may, by notification, abolish, reduce or exempt any land or any class of land from the levy of the local rate.

104. Levy of taxes by Panchayats.—Subject to the general direction and control of the Government, a Panchayat may, with the previous permission of the Government and in the prescribed manner, impose any tax which the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh has power to impose under the Constitution of India:

Provided that no tax under this section shall be imposed in respect of any property subject to the local rate.

105. Power of State Government to regulate taxes.—(1) The State Government may make rules to regulate the imposition, assessment, collection and sharing of taxes under this Act.

(2) No objection shall be taken to any assessment nor shall be the liability of any person to be assessed or taxed be questioned otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

106. Power of State Government in regard to relief in taxes.—(1) If it appears to the State Government that any tax imposed by a Panchayat is excessive its incidence on tax-payer it may, after calling a report from the Panchayat in this regard, abolish any tax or suspend or reduce the amount or rate of any tax.

(2) The State Government may, on its own motion or otherwise after giving the Panchayat an opportunity of expressing its view in the manner by order, exempt from the payment of any tax in whole or in part any person or class of persons or any property subject to such conditions as may be specified in such order.

107. Assignment of funds to Panchayats.—The State Government may assign to a Panchayat such taxes, tolls and fees levied and collected by the State Government and may make grants-in-aid from the Consolidated Fund of the State for such purposes and subject to such conditions and limits as the State Government may deem fit.

108. Grants-in-aid to Panchayats.—The State Government shall make grants-in-aid to the Panchayats as may be decided by it on the basis of the recommendations of the State Finance Commission.

109. Disbursement of local rate and stamp duty amongst Panchayats.—(1) The proceeds of the duty imposed by the Gram Panchayat under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 100 and local rate under sub-section (1) of section 103 shall first be credited to the Consolidated Fund of the State in such manner as may be prescribed and the State Government shall at the commencement of each financial year if the Legislative Assembly by appropriation made by law in this behalf so provides, withdraw from the Consolidated Fund of the State an amount equivalent to the proceeds of the duty and the local rate realised by the State Government in the preceding financial year and place the same to the credit of separate Fund to be called the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Fund hereinafter referred to as "the said fund".

(2) The State Government shall also credit to the said Fund an amount equivalent to twenty per cent of the total land revenue collected during the preceding financial year.

(3) Any sum credited into the said Fund under sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be an expenditure charged on the Consolidated Fund of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

(4) From and out of the said Fund, there shall be paid every year, subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, grant-in-aid—

(a) to all Gram Panchayats, from and out of the amount in the said Fund pertaining to extra stamp duty;
(b) to Panchayat Samitis from and out of the amount in the said Fund pertaining to local rate realised under sub-section (1) of section 103;
(c) to all Panchayats, from and out of the amount in the said Fund pertaining to land revenue.

110. Power of Panchayat to borrow money.—Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf and the restriction contained in any law for the time being in force relating to raising of loans by local authorities a Panchayat may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, raise a loan for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

111. State Government may vest certain property in Panchayats.—(1) The State Government may, by notification and subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may think fit to impose, vest in a Panchayat any property vested in the State Government.

(2) The State Government may resume any property vested in the Panchayat under sub-section (1). No compensation other than the amount paid by the Panchayat for such transfer or the market value at the date of resumption of any building or works erected or executed on such property by the Panchayat shall be payable:

Provided that no compensation shall be payable in respect of building, structure or works constructed or erected in contravention of the terms and conditions of the vesting.

112. Transfer of immovable property.—(1) No immovable property vested in or belonging to a Panchayat shall be transferred by sale, gift, mortgage or exchange or by lease or otherwise except with the sanction of the State Government or any officer authorised by it in this behalf.

(2) The procedure of transfer of immovable property shall be such as may be prescribed.
113. Mode of executing contracts.—The mode of the executing the contracts by the Panchayats shall be such as may be prescribed.

114. Penalty for evasion.—(1) Any person evading the payment of any tax, fee, rate or any amount due shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(2) When any fee has been imposed under this Act or the right to collect it has been leased thereunder, any person employed by the Panchayat concerned or any person duly authorised in this behalf by it or by the lessee to collect such fees, may subject to the condition of the lease to collect the fee expelled from the place for the use of which a fee is payable, any person who is liable to pay the fee but refuses to pay it.

115. Recovery of arrears.—Any arrear of tax, or fee and fines imposed, or any amount due under this Act shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

116. Appeal against taxation.—An appeal against any tax, imposed under this Act, may be preferred to the prescribed authority in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed and the decision of such authority shall be final.

117. Budget and annual accounts.—(1) Every Panchayat shall prepare annually in such form and in such manner and by such date, as may be prescribed, budget estimates, of its receipts and expenditure for the next financial year.

(2) The budget estimates prepared under sub-section (1) shall be approved by such authorities and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The annual accounts and report of administration by Panchayats shall be presented to the prescribed authority in the prescribed manner.

118. Audit of Panchayats.—(1) There shall be a separate and independent Audit Agency under the control of the Director to perform audit of accounts of Panchayats.

(2) The Audit Agency shall consist of such officers and servants, to be appointed by the Director, as the State Government may deem fit from time to time.

(3) The manner of audit of Panchayat accounts, payment of audit fees and action on such audit reports shall be such as may be prescribed.

Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, (22 of 1955) unless a period of six years has elapsed since his conviction;

(m) if he is so disqualified by or under any other law made by the State Legislature.

(2) The question whether a person is or has become subject to any of the disqualifications under sub-section (1), shall after giving an opportunity to the person concerned of being heard, be decided...
123. Bar to hold more than one office.—(1) If any person is elected to more than one office in a Panchayat he shall within 15 days from the date of declaration of result of such election, inform the prescribed authority in writing about holding one of the office of his choice. If such information is not received within the said period, he shall be deemed to hold one office only in the following order of priority to the exclusion of the remaining—

(a) a member of Zila Parishad;
(b) a member of Panchayat Samiti;
(c) a Pradhan of Gram Panchayat;
(d) an Up-Pradhan of Gram Panchayat; and
(e) a member of Gram Panchayat.

(2) If a person who is chosen as an office bearer of a Panchayat or becomes a Member of the House of the People, the Council of States, the State Legislative Assembly or is or becomes an office bearer of a Municipality, then at the expiration of a period of fifteen days from the date of publication of the election result or, as the case may be, within fifteen days from the date of the commencement of term of office of a Member of the House of People, the Council of States, the State Legislative Assembly or the office bearer of Municipality, his seat, in a Panchayat shall become vacant unless he has previously resigned his seat in the House of People, the Council of States, the State Legislative Assembly or the Municipality, as the case may be.

124. Territorial Constituencies.—For the convenience of the election, the Deputy Commissioner shall, in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed in this behalf by the State Government—

(a) divide the Panchayat Samiti area into as many single member territorial constituencies as the number of members are required to be elected;
(b) determine the extent of each territorial constituency; and
(c) determine the territorial constituency or constituencies in which seats are reserved under this Act.

125. Reservation for Chair-persons.—(1) There shall be reserved by the Government, in the prescribed manner such number of offices of Chairpersons in Panchayats at every level in the State for persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and the number of such offices, bearing as may be the same proportion to the total number of offices in the State as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the State or of the Scheduled Tribes in the State bears to the total population of the State.
(2) Not less than one third of offices of Chair-persons reserved in each category, for persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and of the non-reserved offices in the Panchayats at every level shall be reserved for women.

(3) The State Government may, by general or special order, reserve such number of offices of chair-person for persons belonging to Backward Classes in Panchayats at every level, not exceeding the proportion to the total number of offices to be filled by direct election in the Panchayats as the population of the persons belonging to Backward Classes in the State bears to the total population of the State and may further reserve not less than one-third of the total seats reserved under this sub-section for women belonging to Backward Classes.

(4) The offices of chair-persons reserved under sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in the district in such manner as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubt it is hereby declared that the principle of rotation for the purposes of reservation of office under this section shall commence from the first election to be held after the commencement of this Act.

126. Publication of names of office-bearers of Panchayats.—The names of every office bearer of a Panchayat, whether or not chosen by direct election, shall be published by the prescribed authority in such manner as may be prescribed.

127. Oath or affirmation of allegiance.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Oaths Act, 1969 (44 of 1969), no elected office bearer of a Panchayat shall enter upon his office, until he has, in the manner prescribed, taken oath or made affirmation of his allegiance in the form specified in Schedule-V.

(2) If any such person refuses to take or make such oath or affirmation, except on account of such disability for which permission of the prescribed authority is obtained, his election shall be deemed to be invalid and a fresh election shall take place.

(3) No person whose election has been deemed to be invalid under this section shall be eligible for election as the member, Pradhan or Up-Pradhan of Gram Panchayat or the member, Chairman or Vice-Chairman of Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad, as the case may be, for a period of two years from the date on which he ought to have taken or made such oath or affirmation.

128. First meeting and term of office.—(1) First meeting of Panchayat shall be held on such date as the State Government may fix by a general or special order.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the Act, the office bearers of Panchayat shall hold office for five years from the date of the first meeting and no longer.
(3) If before the expiry of the period prescribed in sub-section (2), the Panchayat is not re-constituted, it shall stand dissolved on the expiry of the said period and the provisions of section 140 shall apply thereto for a period not exceeding six months within which the Panchayat shall be reconstituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

129. No confidence motion.—(1) On a motion of no confidence being passed by the Gram Sabha by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting at its general or special meeting and the quorum of which is not less than one-half of the total number of members of the Gram Sabha, Pradhan, or Up-Pradhan against whom such resolution is passed shall cease to hold office forthwith.

(2) Where a notice of intention to move a resolution requiring the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad to vacate his office, signed by not less than majority of its total elected members is given and if a motion of no confidence is carried by a resolution passed by a majority of elected members present and voting at its general or special meeting, the quorum of which is not less than one-half of its total elected members, the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman against whom such resolution is passed shall cease to hold office forthwith.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder, a Pradhan or Up-Pradhan of Gram Panchayat or a Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad shall not preside over a meeting in which a motion of no-confidence is discussed against him. Such meeting shall be presided over by such a person, and convoked in such manner, as may be prescribed and the person against whom a motion of no-confidence is moved, shall have a right to vote and to take part in the proceedings of such a meeting.

(4) Motion of no confidence under sub-section (1) or (2) shall not be maintainable within two years of the date of his election to such office and any subsequent motion of no confidence shall not be maintainable within the interval of two years of the last motion of no confidence.

130. Resignation by office-bearers.—(1) An office bearer of a Panchayat may resign his office by giving notice in writing to the prescribed authority.

(2) The manner of giving notice and procedure of tendering resignation and of its becoming effective shall be as may be prescribed:

Provided that a person tendering resignation may withdraw his resignation before it becomes effective.

131. Casual vacancies.—(1) If any person having been elected as an office bearer of a panchayat—

(a) subsequently becomes subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in section 122 and such disqualification is not removable or being removable is not removed;
(8) absent himself from three consecutive meetings of the Panchayat or its Committee or does not attend half the number of meetings held during the period of six months without the leave of the Panchayat;

he shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), cease to be such office bearer and his office shall become vacant:

Provided that where an application is made by an office bearer to the Panchayat for leave to absent himself under clause (8) and the Panchayat fails to inform the applicant of its decision on the application within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the application, the leave applied for, shall be deemed to have been granted by the Panchayat.

(2) In every case the authority competent to decide whether a vacancy has occurred under sub-section (1) shall be the Deputy Commissioner in respect of Gram Panchayat and Panchayat Samiti and the Director in respect of Zila Parishad who may give his decision either on an application made to him by any person or on his own motion. Until the Deputy Commissioner or the Director, as the case may be, decides that the vacancy has occurred, the person shall not cease to be an office bearer:

Provided that no order shall be passed under this sub-section against any office bearer without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Deputy Commissioner or the Director, as the case may be, under sub-section (2) may, within a period of 30 days from the date of such decision, appeal to the Director or the State Government respectively, whose orders on such appeal shall be final.

(4) In the event of death, resignation or removal of an office bearer or his ceasing to be an office bearer under sub-section (1) or his becoming a Member of State Legislative Assembly or a Member of either House of Parliament before the expiry of his term, or a casual vacancy shall be deemed to have occurred in his office and such vacancy shall be filled as soon as may be by election, in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder. A person elected to fill the vacancy shall take office forthwith for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

(5) In the event of casual vacancy occurring simultaneously in the office of the Pradhan and Up-Pradhan of a Gram Panchayat, Chairman and Vice-Chairman of Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad; the Gram Panchayat or the Panchayat Samiti or the Zila Parishad shall elect an office bearer qualified to hold the office of Pradhan or Chairman, as the case may be, till new Pradhan or Chairman is elected in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

132. Defect or irregularity not to vitiate proceedings.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, but subject to any general or special order of the Government, where two-thirds of the total members of a Panchayat have been elected, the Panchayat shall be deemed to have been duly constituted under this Act.
(2) No act done or proceeding taken by a panchayat or standing Committee or any other Committee appointed under this Act shall be questioned on account of any vacancy in membership or any defect in the election or qualification of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, presiding authority, or member or any defect or irregularity of such act or proceeding or its procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

(3) Until the contrary is proved, every meeting of Panchayat or Standing Committee or any other Committee shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held and all members, attending the meeting, shall be deemed to have been duly qualified when the minutes of the meeting have been duly signed in accordance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

CHAPTER-IX

State Election Commission.—(1) There shall be a State Election Commission constituted by the Governor for superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of electoral rolls for, and the conduct of all elections to the Panchayats bodies in the State under this Act and the rules made thereunder. The Commission shall consist of a State Election Commissioner to be appointed by the Governor.

(2) The salary and allowances payable to, tenure of office and conditions of service of the State Election Commissioner shall be such as the Governor may by rule determine:

Provided that the State Election Commissioner shall not be removed from his office except in the like manner and on the like grounds as a Judge of the High Court and the conditions of service of the State Election Commissioner shall not be varied to his disadvantage after his appointment.

(3) The Governor shall, when so requested by the State Election Commissioner, make available to him such staff as may be necessary for the discharge of the functions conferred on him under this Act.

161. Officers authorized to hear election petitions.—The election petitions under this Act shall be heard—

(i) in the case of Gram Panchayats and Panchayat Samitis, by the Sub-Divisional Officer; and

(ii) in the case of Zila Parishads, by the Deputy Commissioner.

162. Election petitions.—No election under this Act shall be called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

163. Presentation of petition.—(1) Any elector of a Panchayat may, on furnishing the prescribed security, in the prescribed manner, present within thirty days of the publication of the result, on one or more of the grounds specified in sub-section (1) of section 175, to the authorised officer an election petition in writing against the election of any person under this Act.

(2) The election petition shall be deemed to have been presented to the authorised officer—

(a) when it is delivered to him—
(i) by the person making the petition; or
(ii) by a person authorised in writing in this behalf by the person making petition; or
(b) when it is sent by registered post and is delivered to the authorised officer or any other person empowered to receive it.

164. Contents of petition.—(1) An election petition—

(a) shall contain concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies,
(b) shall set forth full particulars of any corrupt practice that the petitioner alleges, including as full a statement as possible of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt practice and the date and place of the commission of each such practice, and
(c) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure; 1908 (5 of 1908) for the verification of pleading.

Provided that where the petitioner alleges any corrupt practice, the petition shall also be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegation of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof.

(2) Any schedule or annexure to the petition shall also be signed by the petitioner and verified in the same manner as the petition.

165. Procedure on receiving election petition.—If the election petition is not furnished in the prescribed manner, or the petition is not presented within the period specified in section 163 the authorised officer shall dismiss the petition:

Provided that the petition shall not be dismissed without giving the petitioner an opportunity of being heard.

166. Withdrawal and transfer of petitions.—The Divisional Commissioner may, at any stage, after notice to parties and for reasons to be recorded, withdraw any election petition pending before an authorised officer and transfer it for trial to another authorised officer within his Division and upon such transfer, the authorised officer shall proceed with the trial from the stage at which it was withdrawn.

Provided that such authorised officer may, if he thinks fit, recall and re-examine any or the witnesses already examined.

167. Procedure before the authorised officer.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any rules made thereunder every election-petition shall be decided by the authorised officer within a period of six months from the date of its presentation under section 163 in accordance with the procedure applicable under the Code of Civil Procedure; 1908 (5 of 1908) to the trial of suits:

Provided that the authorised officer shall have the discretion to refuse for reasons to be recorded in writing, to examine any witness or witnesses if he is of the opinion that the evidence is not material for the decision of the petition or that the party tendering such witness or witnesses is doing so on frivolous grounds or with a view to delay the proceedings.

(2) The provisions of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872) shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be deemed to apply in all respects to the trial of an election petition.

168. Appearance before the authorised officer.—Any appearance, application or act before the authorised officer may be made or done by the party in person or by a pleader duly appointed to act in his behalf:

Provided that it shall be open to the authorised officer to direct any party to appear in person whenever the authorised officer considers it necessary.

169. Power of the authorised officer.—The authorised officer shall have the powers which are vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) when trying a suit in respect of the following matters:

(a) discovery and inspections;
(b) enforcing the attendance of witnesses and requiring the deposit of their expenses;
(c) compelling the production of documents;
(d) examining witnesses on oath;
(e) granting adjournments;
(f) reception of evidence taken on affidavit; and
(g) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses;

and may summon and examine suo-moto any person whose evidence appears to him to be material and shall be deemed to be a Court, within the meaning of sections 345 and 346 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).

Explanation.—For the purpose of enforcing the attendance of witnesses, the local limits of the jurisdiction of the authorised officer shall be the limits of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

170. Documentary evidence.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment to the contrary, no document shall be inadmissible in evidence at the trial of an election petition on the ground that it is not duly stamped or registered.

171. Secrecy of voting not to be infringed.—No witness or other person shall be required to state for whom he has voted at an election.

172. Answering of incriminating questions and certificate of indemnity.—

(1) No witness shall be excused from answering any question to any matter relevant to a matter in issue in the trial of an election petition upon the ground that the answer to such question may incriminate or may tend to criminate him, or that it may expose or may tend to expose him to any penalty or forfeiture:

Provided that—

(a) a witness who answers truly all questions which he is required to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity from the authorised officer; and

(b) an answer given by a witness to a question put by or before the authorised officer shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceedings for perjury in respect of the evidence, be admissible in evidence against him in any civil or criminal proceeding.

(2) When a certificate of indemnity has been granted to any witness it may be pleaded by him in any Court and shall be a full and complete defence to or upon any charge under chapter IX-A of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, (45 of 1860) arising out of the matter to which such certificate relates, but it shall not be deemed to relieve him from any disqualification, in connection with an election, imposed by this Act or any other law.

173. Expenses of witnesses.—The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending to give evidence may be allowed by the authorised officer to such person, and shall, unless he otherwise directs be deemed to be part of the costs.

174. Decision of the authorised officer.—(1) Where an election petition has not been dismissed under section 165, the authorised officer shall inquire into the election petition and at the conclusion of the inquiry shall make an order—

(a) dismissing the election petition; or

(b) setting aside the election.

(2) At the time of making an order under sub-section (1) the authorised officer shall also make an order—

(a) where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election, recording—

(i) in finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election and the nature of that corrupt practice and

(ii) the names of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice and

(b) fixing the total amount of costs payable, and specifying the persons by and to whom costs shall be paid;

Provided that a person who is not a party to the petition shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) unless—

(i) he has been given notice to appear before the authorised officer and to show cause why he should not be so named and
(ii) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross-examining any witness, who has already been examined by the authorised officer and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in the defence and of being heard.

175. Grounds for setting aside election.—(1) If the authorised officer is of the opinion,—

(a) that on the date of his election the elected person was not qualified, or was disqualified, to be elected under this Act; or

(b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by the elected person or his agent or by any other person with the consent of the elected person or his agent; or

(c) that any nomination has been improperly rejected; or

(d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns the elected person, has been materially affected—

(i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination; or

(ii) by the improper receipt, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void; or

(iii) by any non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or of any rule made under this Act, the authorised officer shall set aside the election of the elected person.

(2) When an election has been set aside under sub-section (1), a fresh election shall be held.

176. Abatement of election petitions.—An election petition shall abate only on the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners.

177. Costs and payment thereof out of security deposits and return of such deposits.—(1) Costs including pleader’s fees shall be in the discretion of the authorised officer:

(2) If in any order as to costs under the provisions of this chapter, there is a direction for payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not been already paid, be paid in full or so far as possible, out of the security deposit made by such party under this chapter, on an application made in writing in that behalf, within a period of one year from the date of such order, to the Collector by the person in whose favour the costs have been awarded.

(3) If there is any balance left of the security deposit under this chapter after payment under sub-section (1) of the costs referred to in that sub-section, such balance or where no costs have been awarded, or no application as aforesaid has been made within the said period of one year, the whole of the said security deposit may, on an application made in that behalf in writing to the Collector by the person by whom the security has been deposited or if such person dies after making such deposit, by the legal representative of such person, he returned to the said person or to his legal representative, as the case may be.

178. Execution of orders as to costs.—Any order as to costs under the provisions of this chapter may be produced before the principal Civil Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any person directed by such order to pay any sums of money has a place of residence or business and such Court shall execute the order or cause the same to be executed in the same manner and by the same procedure as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by itself in a suit:

Provided that where any such costs or any portion thereof, may be recovered by an application made under sub-section (2) of section 177, no application shall lie under this section within a period of one year from the date of such order unless it is for the recovery of the balance of any costs which has been left unexecuted after an application has been made under that sub-section owing to insufficiency of the amount of the security deposit referred to in that sub-section.

179. Corruption practices entailing disqualification.—The corrupt practice specified in section 180 shall entail disqualification for membership of a Panchayat for a period of five years counting from the date on which the finding of the authorised officer as to such practice has been given:

Provided that the Government may, for reasons to be recorded, remove the disqualification or reduce the period thereof.

180. Corruption practices.—The following shall be deemed to be corruption practices for the purposes of this Chapter:

1. Bribery, that is to say—

(A) any gift, offer or promise by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent of any gratification to any person whomsoever, with the object, directly or indirectly, of inducing—

(a) a person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw from being a candidate at an election; or

(b) an elector of the Panchayat area to vote or refrain from voting at an election; or as a reward to—

(i) a person for having so stood or not so stood or for having withdrawn his candidature; or

(ii) an elector of the Panchayat area for having voted or refrained from voting;

(B) the receipt of or agreement to receive any gratification, whether as a motive or a reward—

(a) by a person for standing or not standing as, or for withdrawing from being a candidate; or
(b) by any person whomever for himself or any other person for voting or refraining from voting, or inducing or attempting to induce an elector of the Panchayat area to vote or refrain from voting, or any candidate to withdraw his candidature.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, the term “gratification” is not restricted to pecuniary gratification or gratifications estimable in money and it includes all forms of entertainment and all forms of employment for reward but it does not include the payment of any expenses bona fide incurred at, or, for the purpose of, any election.

Provided that—

(a) without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of this clause, any such person as is referred to therein who—

(i) threatens any candidate or a member of the Sabha, or any person in whom a candidate or such member is interested, with injury of any kind including social ostracism and excommunication or expulsion from any caste or community; or

(ii) induces or attempts to induce a candidate or an elector of the Panchayat area to believe that he, or any other person in whom he is interested, will become or will be, rendered, an object to divine displeasure or spiritual censure;

shall be deemed to interfere with the free exercise of the electoral right of such candidate or an elector of the Panchayat area within the meaning of this clause;

(b) a declaration of public policy, or a promise of public action or the mere exercise of a legal right without intent to interfere with an electoral right, shall not be deemed to be interference within the meaning of this clause;

(3) The appeal by a candidate or his agent, or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent to vote or refrain from voting for any person on the ground of his religion, race, caste, community or language, or the use of, or appeal to religious symbols or the use of, or appeal to, national symbols, such as the national flag or the national emblem, for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate.

(4) The promotion of or attempt to promote, feelings of enmity or hatred between different classes of the citizens of India on grounds of religion, race, caste, community or language, by a candidate or his agent or any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate.

(5) The publication by a candidate or his agent or by any other person, with the consent of a candidate or his agent, of any statement of fact which is false and which he either believes to be false or does not believe to be true, in relation to the personal character or conduct of any candidate, or in relation to the candidature or withdrawal of any candidate, being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of the candidates election.

(6) The hiring or procuring, whether on payment or otherwise, of any vehicle by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent, for the conveyance of an elector of the Panchayat area (other than the candidate himself, the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station or a place fixed for the poll.

Explanation.—In this clause, the expression 'vehicle' means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power for otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise.

(7) The obtaining or procuring or abetting or attempting to obtain or procure by a candidate or his agent, or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent, any assistance other than the giving of vote) for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidate's election, from any person in the service of the Government, the Government of India or the Government of any other State or a local authority.

181. Appeals.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any person aggrieved by an order made by the authorised officer under this chapter, may, within the prescribed time, and in the prescribed manner, appeal—

(i) in case the order is passed by the Sub-Divisional Officer, to the Deputy Commissioner; and

(ii) in case the order is passed by the Deputy Commissioner, to the Divisional Commissioner; and he shall hear and dispose of the appeal within a period of ninety days.

182. Bar of interference by courts in election matters.—The validity of any law relating to the delimitation of constituencies, of the allotment of seats in such constituencies, made or purposed to be made under this Act shall not be called in question in any Court.

183. Power to make rules for conduct of elections.—The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and in consultation with the State Election Commission, make rules for the composition of Panchayats, conducting the election, issue of symbols and all matters relating to or in connection with elections to the Panchayats.

193. Bar for suit in absence of notice.—No suit shall lie against any Panchayat or any office bearer, officer or servant thereof or any person acting under the direction of any of the authorities, mentioned in this Act, for anything done or purporting to be done under this Act unless a notice under section 80 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 (3 of 1908) has been duly served.

194. Method of service.—Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the service of any notice or other documents under this Act or under any rule, by-law or order made thereunder shall be affected in the prescribed manner.

195. Proceedings and record of Panchayats open to inspection.—Minute of the proceedings at each meeting of a Panchayat or its committees shall be drawn up and recorded in a book to be kept for the purpose and shall, in the prescribed manner, be signed by the authority presiding over the meeting and confirmed in the next meeting, and subject to rules made under this Act and on the payment of such fee as may be prescribed, the records of Panchayat or any committee thereof, shall be open to inspection to the person who may desire it and certified copies thereof shall be given to the person who may apply for them on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

196. Prohibition of remuneration to members.—No member of panchayat shall be granted any remuneration or allowance of any kind whatever by the Panchayat except in accordance with the rules made in its behalf.

197. Panchayat in default of owner or occupier may execute work and recover expenses.—Whenever under the provisions of this Act any work is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any building or land and default is made in the execution of such work the Panchayat, whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such work to be executed, and the expenses thereby incurred shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be paid to it by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed and in case of default of payment, it shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

198. Acquisition of land.—Where any land is required for carrying out the purposes of this Act and the Panchayat is unable to acquire it by agreement, the State Government may at the request of the Panchayat and on the recommendation of the Collector proceed to acquire it under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894) and on payment by the Panchayat of compensation awarded under that Act, and all other charges incurred by the State Government in connection with the proceedings, the land shall vest in the Panchayat on whose account it has been so acquired.

(2) The Panchayat shall not without the previous sanction of the State Government transfer any land which has been acquired under sub-section (1) or divert such land to a purpose other than the purpose for which it has been acquired.

199. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions thereof which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of two years from the Commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid on the Table of the Legislative Assembly.

200. Repeal and savings.—(1) On and from the date of commencement of this Act, the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1968 (19 of 1970) shall stand repealed (hereinafter referred to as the repealed Act):

Provided that the repeal shall not affect,—

(a) the previous operation of the repealed Act, or anything duly done or suffered thereunder,
(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the repealed Act, or (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the repealed Act, or (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act has not been enforced:

Provided further that subject to the preceding proviso anything done or any action taken (including any appointment, or delegation made, notification, notice, order, instruction or direction issued, rule, regulation, bye-laws, form, or scheme framed, certificate obtained, permit or licence granted, registration affected, tax imposed or fee or rate levied), under the repealed Act shall, in so far as it is in force immediately before the coming into force of this Act and is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act and shall continue to be in force accordingly, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act.

(2) The existing Panchayats shall continue till the expiration of their duration, unless sooner dissolved under the provisions of this Act or by a resolution passed, to that effect by the Legislative Assembly.

(3) The arrangement existing for the Gram Panchayat, Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad under the repealed Act shall continue, until the corresponding Gram Panchayat, Panchayat Samiti and Zila Parishad, as the case may be, is constituted under this Act.
(4) The Deputy Commissioner shall apportion the assets and liabilities of the existing Gram Panchayats, amongst the corresponding Gram Panchayats constituted under this Act, according to the guidelines issued by the State Government for the purpose.

(4) An offence punishable under sub-section (2) shall be cognizable.

160-A. Requisitioning of premises, vehicles, etc., for election purposes.- (1) If it appears to the State Government that in connection with an election to the Panchayat bodies,-

(a) any premises are needed or are likely to be needed for the purpose of being used as a polling station or for the storage of ballot boxes after a poll has been taken; or

(b) any vehicle, vessel or animal is needed or is likely to be needed for the purpose of transport of ballot boxes to or from any polling station, or transport of members of the police force for maintaining order during the conduct of such election, or transport of any officer or other person for performance of any duties in connection with such election; the State Government may by order in writing requisition such premises, or such vehicle, vessel or animal, as the case may be, and may make such further orders as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient in connection with the requisitioning:

Provided that no vehicle, vessel or animal which is being lawfully used by a candidate or his agent for any purpose connected with the election of such candidate shall be requisitioned under this sub-section until the completion of the poll at such election.

(2) The requisition shall be effected by an order in writing addressed to the person deemed by the State Government to be the owner or person in possession of the property, and such order shall be served in the prescribed manner on the person to whom it is addressed.

(3) Whenever any property is requisitioned under sub-section (1), the period of such requisition shall not extend beyond the period for which such property is required for any of the purposes mentioned in that sub-section.

(4) In this section-

(a) "premises" means any land, building or part of a building and includes a hut, shed or other structure or any part thereof; and

(b) "vehicle" means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise.

160-B. Payment of compensation.- (1) Whenever in pursuance of section 160-A the State Government requisitions any premises, there shall be paid to the persons interested compensation, the amount of which shall be determined by taking into consideration the following, namely:-

(i) the rent payable in respect of the premises or if no rent is so payable, the rent payable for similar premises in the locality;
(ii) if in consequence of the requisition of the premises the person interested is compelled to change his residence or place of business, the reasonable expenses (if any) incidental to such change:

Provided that where any person interested being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application within the prescribed time to the State Government for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation, to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the State Government may determine:

Provided further that where there is any dispute as to the title to receive the compensation or as to the apportionment of the amount of compensation, it shall be referred to the State Government to an arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the State Government for determination, and shall be determined in accordance with the decision of such arbitrator.

Explanation.- In this sub-section, the expression "person interested" means the person who was in actual possession of the premises requisitioned under section 160-A immediately before the requisition, or where no person was in such actual possession, the owner of such premises.

(2) Whenever in pursuance of section 160-A the State Government requisitions any vehicle, vessel or animal, there shall be paid to the owner thereof compensation the amount of which shall be determined by the State Government on the basis of the fares or rates prevailing in the locality for the hire of such vehicle, vessel or animal:

Provided that where the owner of such vehicle, vessel or animal being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application within the prescribed time to the State Government for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the State Government may determine:

Provided further that where immediately before the requisitioning the vehicle or vessel was by virtue of a hire-purchase agreement in the possession of a person other than the owner, the amount determined under this sub-section as the total compensation payable in respect of the requisition shall be apportioned between that person and the owner in such manner as they may agree upon, and in default of agreement, in such manner as an arbitrator appointed by the State Government in this behalf may decide.

160-C. Release of premises from requisition. - (1) When any premises requisitioned under section 160-A are to be released from requisition, the possession thereof shall be delivered to the person from whom possession was taken at the time when the premises were requisitioned, or if there were no such person, to the person deemed by the State Government to be the owner of such premises, and such delivery of possession shall be a full discharge of the State Government from all liabilities in respect of such delivery, but shall not prejudice any rights in respect of the premises which any other person may be entitled by due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the premises is so delivered.

(2) Where the person to whom the possession of any premises requisitioned under section 160-A is to be given under sub-section (1) cannot be found or is not readily ascertainable or has no agent or any other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf, the State Government shall cause a notice declaring that such premises are released from requisition to be affixed on some conspicuous part of such premises and publish the notice in the Official Gazette.

(3) When a notice referred to in sub-section (2) is published in the Official Gazette, the premises specified in such notice shall cease to be subject to requisition on and from the date of such publication and be deemed to have been delivered to the person entitled to possession thereof, and the State Government shall not be liable for any compensation or other claim in respect of such premises for any period after the said date.

160-D. Delegation of functions of the State Government with regard to requisitioning. - The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any powers conferred or any duty imposed on it by any of the provisions of sections 160-A to 160-C shall, under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the direction, be exercised or discharged by such officer or class of officers as may be so specified.
